

Kindlers workshops 2020

Answering that of God

How do we discern and answer 'that of God' in everyone?

Deepening Quaker Worship

A day devoted to exploring the simple, radical and contemporary practice of Quaker worship

Finding Our Own Silence

A day of contemplation and conversation exploring what helps and hinders our experience of silent worship.

Listening

Listening to others, to ourselves and to God. Finding the light in ourselves and the world in a spirit of love and attention.

Living Adventurously

A day exploring living adventurously within the framework of the Quaker testimonies

Nurturing Our Meetings

What elements and practices are essential in creating vibrant, supportive communities in our Quaker Meetings?

Prayer

Explore the concept and practice of prayer. What does prayer mean to you?

A Retreat Day

A day of rest, reflection and an opportunity to open up to a new relationship with silence.

Vocal Ministry

Consider the varieties of vocal ministry against the background of deep silent waiting.

Walking Cheerfully Over the World

How can we 'walk cheerfully' as George Fox put it, and why is this still important today?

What Does Love Require of Us?

How does love require us to use our gifts to heal the world and let our lives truly speak?

Fuller descriptions are available for some workshops. For further exploration of workshop themes, Friends are encouraged to investigate the Kindler booklets.

Each workshop costs £250. This covers all admin and travel expenses for two facilitators. Accommodation with local Friends may be requested in some circumstances. N.B. The cost of the retreat day may be lower due to subsidy from a Quaker trust.
